

Launch of the Village Produce Films during a Two Day Village Shop 13th and 14th Nov 2008

as part of Grizedale Arts' Toadball.tv at the Royal Academy's Contemporary Season,
6 Burlington Gardens, London W1J 0BD.

Please join us for a special Launch Event on Thursday 13th Nov from 19.00 with our films, village food and shop talk, together with Alistair Hudson from Grizedale Arts, Nina Pope from somewhere, 'Michael Smythe from nomad and Kathrin Böhm, Wapke Feenstra and Andreas Lang from myvillages.org and public works.

Opening hours of our shop are:
Thursday 13th from 12.00 to 22.00 and Friday 14th November from 12.00 - 18.00.

The Village Shop is a joint long term initiative by myvillages.org (www.myvillages.org), public works (www.publicworksgroup.net), Grizedale Arts (www.grizedale.org) and somewhere (www.somewhere.org.uk).
The Two Day Village Shop will be hosted by Kathrin Böhm (myvillages & public works), Wapke Feenstra (myvillages) and Andreas Lang (public works).

The Village Produce Films show the producers and production of several items from Lawson Park (UK), Wjelsryp (NL) and Höfen (Ger), and are a co-production with Michael Smythe. See more on www.agrifashionista.tv.

This event is supported by the Mondriaan Foundation and villages mentioned.
